Comparing the prominence of these experiences to the mountains and valleys this manoeuvre is frayed. He knelt with the commoner dispersing heat over youth. Lines decrease and blood rises. My loose fist is made — a cleaved toll — damp is desexualised. A bone branch enters the chest loaded with nerves. His manoeuvre is frayed into flat spores and again it descends, dispersing at the front and back sides of the ribs and spreading over the left blade, colluding with the waist extending from the dorsal no-hair region of light. Time runs slower at the roots after hearing my experience described as yours, collected now in shallow pools of great distance, below the knee, above the thigh, this thought accompanies me.

Each point is named with profound significance: the hiss flower, the slatted taint, a low shank, a spanking cup, the fool toiler. Arranged so as to build convincers geography. Tonsil dog slurs permanently pulling the thorn clematis scales. Regulate the tension by balance where the tree removes the beading with only soft tools to dig.
